The Hornbill Festival, Rhinos & much more ...

Northeast India with Tara Gupta: 4th Dec – 18th Dec 2019

For a truly immersive experience there's no better time to visit Nagaland than during the uniquely eclectic Hornbill Festival. Set amidst beautiful mountain surroundings & steeped in history and tribal tradition of 17 tribes of Nagaland, you will experience the gentle camaraderie & joyousness of the Naga people: Dance competitions, a heritage motor car rally, Naga wrestling, a beautiful fashion night, a pork-fat greased pole climbing contest, great public art, and to top it all – the biggest, and arguably the best, rock contest in India. The colors and sights of this mesmerizing festival will linger for a lifetime. On this journey you will also:

- ❖ Soak in the tranquility of Assam's verdant Tea Estates
- ❖ Stay on Majuli Island, one of the largest river (Brahmaputra) islands in the world
- ❖ Spot one-horned rhinos, elephants & other wildlife of Kaziranga National Park
- ❖ Discover beautiful hills, lakes, living root tree-bridges & Mawsmai Caves of Meghalaya (State).
- ❖ Visit Mawlynnong, the cleanest village in Asia
- ❖ Hike the David Scott Trail through Sacred Grove & old monoliths of the Khasi Hills
- ❖ And much more: including extensions to Kolkata, cruising the Ganges & the mighty Brahmaputra

Join me on this unforgettable journey, to an utterly transportive and little explored part of the country!
